FUND MANAGER COMMENTS 基金經理觀點

In March, the market trend was stable, and there were both gains and losses across industries. Nonferrous metals, household appliances, and coal led the gains, while computers, real estate, and electronics led the declines.

In March, we gradually increased the allocation of the innovative drug sector and also increased the allocation of the nonferrous metals sector, while reducing the allocation in the technology direction. The time of the change in the tariff policy in April will be an important period of change for the market. Although exports may be significantly affected, considering that the trade war has already lasted for seven years, the industries that can be transferred out have already made a full global layout of production capacity, and what remains in China are often industries that are difficult to transfer. Looking ahead to April, we are optimistic about the innovative drug and dividend sectors. The decline caused by tariffs will be a high-quality buying opportunity.

3月市場走勢平穩,行業漲跌互現。有色金屬、家用電器、煤炭漲幅居前,電腦、房地產、電子跌幅居前。

3月我們逐步增加了創新藥板塊的配置並增加了有色金屬板塊的配置,減少了科技方向的配置。四月關稅政策的變化的時點將是市場重要的變局期。儘管出口可能會有比較大的影響,但是考慮到已經經歷了七年的貿易戰,能夠轉移出去的行業也已經充分的做了全球產能的佈局,國內剩下的往往是難以轉移的行業。 展望四月,我們看好創新藥及紅利板塊。因為關稅產生的下行將是優質的買入時點。
